

Can you identify a moment when you became aware of the personal love of God for you?